With Forgery, Is Feigning Insanity. (Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Ogden, Dec. 29.—John McDermott, charged with forgery, and who made a bold attempt to escape from the county jall last evening by means of a wooden key, is, in the opinion of the sheriff, feigning insanity.

Following the discovery of his attempt to escape the man wrote a long letter to his wife, saying that he was intending to commit suicide. This with a broken bottle was found in his possession shortly afterward. Today he talked irrationally when approached by the officers and seems to be in fear of being shot. The officers think, however, that it is but a poor attempt to feign insanity. (Special to The Herald-Republican.)
